

Dr. Philipp R. Mrutzek

Associate
Hamburg

Biography

Dr. Philipp R. Mrutzek advises companies in the automotive and e-commerce sectors in judicial and extrajudicial disputes in the areas of press, contract and competition law.

Philipp R. Mrutzek focused his education on private international law and European private and civil procedural law. During his studies, he completed additional training in economics and acquired knowledge of US legal systems, which was followed by a practical study visit to Washington, D.C., USA.

Prior to his assessor examination at the Higher Regional Court of Oldenburg, Philipp R. Mrutzek obtained a doctorate in constitutional law in the USA and studied as a research fellow at the Loyola University Chicago School of Law. Until the beginning of his legal career, he taught law at the University of Osnabrück and worked in an international business consulting firm.

In addition to his legal work, Philipp R. Mrutzek is also involved as a mentor for young students in various organizations in Northern Germany.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - Coronavirus and civil procedure –Digital hearings in international court proceedings

Phone

+49 40 419 93 0

Fax

+49 40 419 93 200

Email

philipp.mrutzek@hoganlovells.com

Languages

German
English

Practices

Commercial Litigation
Litigation Services

Industries

Automotive
Consumer
Sports, Media and Entertainment

Education and admissions

Education

Dr. iur., Osnabrück University, 2019

Second State Exam in Law, Higher
Regional Court of Oldenburg, 2018

Research Scholar, Loyola University
Chicago School of Law, 2016

First State Exam in Law, Osnabrück
University, 2013

Supplementary Degree in Economics, Osnabrück University, 2011

Certificate of Competence in Legal English & American Law, Osnabrück
University, 2010
