Counsel

Rome

Biography

Daniela Pietrini is an Italian qualified lawyer with a strong background in securitizations of a wide variety of performing and non-performing assets.

Daniela represents leading national and international market operators (arrangers, originators and/or investors) in the context of structured finance and debt capital market transactions, securitization transactions and financing transactions.

Her experience includes the legal assistance to investment funds, banks and servicers in their investments for the purchase and management of non-performing and "unlikely to pay" receivables.
