

03 January 2021

Law360

California's landmark privacy law and looming changes to strengthen those rules are poised to keep companies busy in 2021, while state legislatures and Congress are expected to jumpstart efforts derailed by the COVID-19 pandemic to rein in how businesses use and share personal information.

Read More: Cybersecurity and privacy policy to watch in 2021

Contacts

Peter M.
Marta

Partner

> Read the full article online