

Cybersecurity due diligence in health care transactions

03 August 2021

AHLA's Speaking of health law podcast

In this American Health Law Association (AHLA) podcast episode, Nathan Salminen, Hogan Lovells senior associate, speaks to Jon Moore, Clearwater Chief Risk Officer and Senior Vice President of Consulting Services, about steps that organizations can take to protect themselves from cyber risks in the health care transactions arena.

They discuss the different kinds of risks and due diligence issues that organizations face, including those related to representations and warranties and artificial intelligence and machine learning.
