

27 January 2017

Keeping It Real Estate

The government has now issued its formal response to the House of Lords' special report on the hybrid bill for HS2, issued in December. Whilst much of this relates to specific petitioners it also includes some important changes to the bill relating to the government's powers of compulsory purchase, compensation and engagement with landowners.

Click here to read the full article.

Contacts

Hannah Quarterman

Partner

> Read the full article online