

New York Employers Must Provide Notice of Wage Rate to All Employees by February 1, 2014

14 January 2014

Employment Alert

This a reminder that the New York Wage Theft Prevention Act requires all private sector employers in New York, including not-for-profit corporations, to give written notice of wage rates to all New York employees, both exempt and non-exempt, by February 1 of each year.

Read More: New York Employers Must Provide Notice of Wage Rate to All Employees by February 1, 2014

Contacts

Stanley
(Stan) J.
Brown

Senior Counsel

Kenneth Kirschner

Partner

Michael E.
DeLarco

Office
Managing
Partner

> Read the full article online