

The business impact of coronavirus - legal and tax support from Hogan Lovells in Poland

23 March 2020

We all continue to navigate our way through the challenges arising out of COVID-19. While these unprecedented events unfold, we wanted to take this moment to reach out to you, and assure that as a client of Hogan Lovells you have the ongoing support of a strong and resilient law firm. We are ready to help you with any legal issues that you may be facing right now, in particular those arising from the threat of the COVID-19.

Read the full alert: The business impact of coronavirus - legal and tax support from Hogan Lovells in Poland

> Read the full article online