Biography

Rachel is a senior partner in the financial services regulatory team advising banks, insurers, investment and wealth managers and financial market infrastructures.

In 2020 Rachel was appointed as vice-chair of the Policy and Regulation chapter of HM Treasury's FinTech Strategic Review ('FSR') commissioned by Ron Kalifa (NED at Bank of England & former CEO of Worldpay), also referred to as the 'Kalifa Review'.

In the giving advice, she is described as 'Regulatory Brainbox' by the Financial News. Rachel is known for being tenacious in defending her clients' interests, attracting widespread admiration as a formidable negotiator in commercial transactions. This mix has given her experience of the regulations applying to how institutions must be organised, how they sell their products and services, and how they contract with others.

Rachel is a stand-out regulatory lawyer and a market leader in the areas of Brexit. Rachel serves as Chair of the IRSG Brexit Working Group on international access and competitiveness and has been the lead author on three of their post-Brexit reports.

Rachel is part of the Legal 500 'Hall of Fame' for Financial Services Regulatory (2021) and has been described by a client this year as 'the best all-round financial services partner in the City' (Legal 500, 2021). She has been appointed to the Executive Board of the
