

Mauro Saccani

Partner
Milan

Biography

Praised by clients as "well prepared, always available to find a solution and empathetic" Mauro is a practical and commercially oriented lawyer.

Mauro strongly believes that collaboration and cooperation are at the basis of any business success.

As a Banking and Loan Finance Partner and Head of the Restructuring and Special Situations practice in Italy, he has strong personal relationships with large corporates, banks, private credit funds, private equity sponsors, and their financial advisors.

His experience focuses on a broad range of banking, leveraged and acquisition finance, debt restructuring, debt capital markets, restructuring, and corporate reorganization. Moreover, Mauro is an energetic and entrepreneurial lawyer, and most of his transactions have a cross-border element.

Mauro is constantly recognized by the major legal directories as a leading lawyer both for banking and restructuring and insolvency.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells in April 2023, Mauro worked for an international law firm since 2008, and previously for an Italian leading law firm.
