

Julie Schindel

Senior Associate
Baltimore

Biography

Julie Schindel doesn't just grasp the complex medical and scientific issues involved in products liability litigation – she masters them so her clients don't have to.

Her ability to steep herself in the subject matter of each case, as well as her clients' business and their industry, enables her to offer counsel that is both nuanced and practical. This balance of detail-oriented, thorough scientific know-how with business-focused insights is the hallmark of her practice.

Julie's civil practice focuses primarily on product liability litigation, including individual, mass tort, multidistrict litigation, and class actions in federal and state courts across the United States. She also has experience in complex civil and commercial litigation. Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Julie served as an extern for the Honorable Richard D. Bennett in the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland and was a summer associate at the firm in 2014 and 2015. During her undergraduate studies at the University of Florida, Julie was an NCAA Division 1 scholarship student athlete. The hard work, team-focused mentality, and dedication to mastering her craft that led her to perform at one of the highest levels in her sport are the same qualities that drive and define her legal practice today.

Representative experience

Phone

+1 410 659 5058

Fax

+1 410 659 2701

Email

julie.schindel@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Litigation Services

Products Law

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care

Consumer

Areas of focus

Medical Devices

Class Actions and Group Litigation

Digital Health

Hospitals and Health Care Providers

Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology

Product Litigation

Representing a university and medical center in a lawsuit by 800 Guatemalans relating to studies conducted in the 1940s.

Representing numerous medical device, biotechnology, and pharmaceutical manufacturers in federal and state court product liability actions.

Representing a pharmaceutical company in MDL and coordinated state court action involving allegations that an atypical antipsychotic caused compulsive gambling and other impulse control disorders.

Representing two defendants in opioid litigation in various jurisdictions, including the national prescription opiate MDL.

Advising developers of wearable technology and digital health platforms on liability risk mitigation strategies.

Representing a leading biotechnology company in clinical trial litigation.

Represented a large pharmaceutical company in a federal class action and several state actions involving price reporting and reimbursement issues.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - Artificial Intelligence: World First Rules Are Coming Soon – Are You Ready? (Part 2)
- News
 - FDA proposes mandatory patient labeling for Rx drugs
- News
 - FDA proposes mandatory patient labeling for Rx drugs
- News
 - Restrictions on lawyer ads involving drugs and medical devices are not unconstitutional, says federal court
- News
 - U.S. courts continue to apply narrower view of PREP Act immunity

Retail and Consumer Goods

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., University of Maryland, Francis King Carey School of Law, cum laude, 2016

B.A., University of Florida, cum laude, 2013

Bar admissions and qualifications

Maryland

Court admissions

U.S. District Court, District of Maryland

- News
 - International Products Law Review, May 2021