

Insurance Litigation

Clients hire our global insurance litigation team to resolve disputes arising from complex, high-exposure risks — from cyberattacks, governmental investigations, and shareholder lawsuits to product recalls, environmental contamination, and hurricanes.

Based in more than 30 litigation hot-spots around the world, our lawyers deliver precedent-setting wins by combining courtroom know-how and in-depth insurance industry knowledge.

Cross-border collaboration is a key to our success for clients. When risks underwritten in London emerge in Houston, and reinsurance treaties issued in Tokyo cover losses in Dusseldorf, our multijurisdictional teams bridge the international divide.
