

Anvita Sharma

Senior Associate

London

Biography

As a senior associate in our Employment practice, Anvita advises on a variety of employment matters, both contentious and non-contentious, including disciplinary and grievance processes, terminations and unfair dismissal, as well as advising clients on employment tribunal claims and the employment aspects of corporate transactions.

Representative experience

Defending unfair dismissal and disability discrimination claims for an international clinical research organisation.

Acting for a financial institutions in the defence of a complex whistleblowing, unfair dismissal and maternity, pregnancy and sex discrimination claims.

Advising major banks and financial institutions on the GDPR and employment law issues arising from pre-employment vetting and implementation of background checks.

Acting for a leading drinks manufacturer in its acquisition of a brewing business which involved an intra-group reorganisation and share acquisition.

Latest thinking and events

- Webinar
  - Avoiding discrimination against customers in financial services

Phone

+44 20 7296 5928

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

anvita.sharma@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Employment

---

Education and admissions

Education

Legal Practice Certificate, BPP
University Law School, 2013

B.A. (Jurisprudence), Oxford
University, 2011

---

- Webinar
  - UK Employment Webinar: Returning to the workplace after COVID-19
- Press Releases
  - Hogan Lovells collaborates on Guide to Ethnicity Pay Gap reporting
- Webinar
  - Webinar: UK employment law developments in 2021
- Webinar
  - Changes to IR35 – What should employers do to prepare?
- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - Changes to IR35: What should employers do to prepare?