

Christine A. Sifferman

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Christine A. Sifferman represents life sciences companies in complex civil litigation, with an emphasis on class action, RICO, and antitrust claims.

Christine helps her clients put their best foot forward in high-profile disputes, whether in state or federal court.

She has experience with all stages of civil litigation, including motions to dismiss, discovery and confidentiality disputes, fact and expert witness depositions, summary judgment, trial preparation, and settlement negotiation.

In her pro bono practice, Christine represents immigrant and refugee clients. She has assisted clients with navigating complex USCIS applications for resettlement or legal resident status, including U Visas, Special Immigrant Visas, and I-130 family petitions.

Christine began her career at Hogan Lovells as a summer associate in 2016 and has practiced in the firm's Washington, D.C. and New York offices.

Representative experience

Representation of a global pharmaceutical company in multidistrict class-action litigation on issues such as drug pricing and competition

Representation of a global pharmaceutical company in federal and state multidistrict litigation on issues relating to prescription opioids

Phone

+1 202 637 6469

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

christine.sifferman@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Litigation Services

Commercial Litigation

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care

Areas of focus

Class Actions and Group Litigation

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., New York University School of Law, 2017

B.A., University of California,
Davis, high honors, Phi Beta Kappa, 2014

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

New York

Court admissions

U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
