

Tobias Flasbarth

Counsel
Hamburg

Biography

Tobias Flasbarth is one of the few leading individuals who advises clients on company as well as on energy law. He focuses on advising national and international clients on mergers and acquisitions, restructurings and energy projects. He frequently represents clients in formal and informal proceedings at German and European regulatory authorities.

A secondment to a client and his substantial project experience have helped him to be quick to identify the client's needs and make him a sought-after advisor for all in need not only of a qualified lawyer but also of a successful solution provider.
