

Tom Walsh

Senior Associate

London

Biography

Tom is an associate working in the social enterprise practice at Hogan Lovells. Tom provides legal advice and support to social enterprises, mission-led businesses and impact organisations.

Tom trained at Hogan Lovells and qualified as an associate into the Pensions team in 2018, where he advised large pension schemes and corporates on a variety of issues, including the implementation of ESG policies.

Since joining the social enterprise team Tom has advised numerous social enterprises and charities on their corporate governance and a variety of commercial issues. Tom has also coordinated the provision of legal advice and support for the firm's social enterprise clients, and worked with both corporate and social enterprise client partners to develop and facilitate the global HL BaSE program.

Representative experience

Advising large charities on negotiations with government departments

Advising on the establishment and structure of charities and social enterprises

Drafting agreements relating to the transfer and sub-contracting of services

Advising pension trustees, corporates, social enterprises and charities on data protection issues

Phone

+44 20 7296 2053

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

tom.walsh@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Practices

Corporate Governance and Public Company Representation

Business and Human Rights

Areas of focus

Sustainable Finance & Investment

Education and admissions

Education

LL.B., University of Exeter, 2015

Facilitating legal clinics on behalf of corporate and social enterprise client partners

Latest thinking and events

- Awards & rankings
 - Hogan Lovells ranked third in Law.com's Best Law Firms for Pro Bono in the UK for 2024
- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells supports Refugee Paralympic team with Pro Bono work for 2024 Paris Paralympic Games
- Awards & rankings
 - Hogan Lovells ranked third in Law.com's Best Law Firms for Pro Bono in the UK for 2023

Memberships

Social Enterprise UK

Bar admissions and qualifications

Solicitor, England and Wales
