

Hannah Wiborg

Associate
Munich

Biography

Hannah Wiborg advises on regulatory and commercial matters of our clients in the pharmaceutical, medical device and biotech industries.

Hannah's focus is on pharmaceutical and medical device law. This includes in particular regulatory aspects of marketing and distribution, but also reimbursement law, drug advertising law and compliance aspects.

Hannah had her first contact with health care law during her studies. After her First State Exam, she worked in a law firm in Berlin specializing in medical law. During her legal clerkship she worked in the legal department of the Charité hospital and in a boutique law firm for health care law.
