

Prof. Dr. Winfried Tilmann

Of Counsel
Dusseldorf

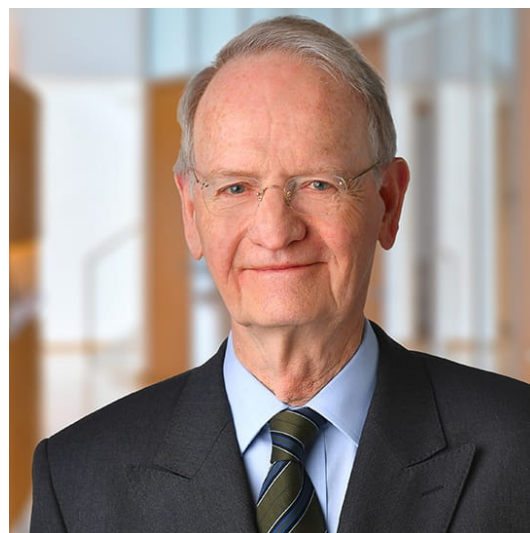

Biography

With almost 40 years experience in intellectual property law, Winfried Tilmann retired in 2006, but remained active as of Counsel. He participates in constructing the new European patent litigation system. Winfried has published more than 100 books and other publications on intellectual property, antitrust and business law.

Following his studies in Münster, Bonn, Athens (Ohio) and Heidelberg, he first worked as a judge at the Regional Court of Mannheim and as an advisor in patent and trademark law in the Federal Ministry of Justice. In 1979, Winfried joined the Dusseldorf law firm von Falck, a predecessor firm of Hogan Lovells. He is a member of the UPC Rules of Procedure Drafting Committee and of the Expert Group for the UPC Preparatory Committee.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - German Federal Constitutional Court declares Act of Approval to the UPCA to be null and void
- News
 - Unified Patent Court update: German Federal Constitutional Court ruling
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Unified Patent Protection in Europe: A Commentary
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Intellectual Property Newsletter - July 2010
Intellectual Property Alert

Phone

+49 211 13 68 0

Fax

+49 211 13 68 100

Email

winfried.tilmann@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French
German
Italian

Practices

Patents
Intellectual Property
