

Inde

Given the country's dynamic and ever-changing landscape, businesses need the right kind of support in India. With strong local relationships, keen market knowledge, and a long track record of working in India, Hogan Lovells paves the way for both Indian and foreign clients. Whether you're an international corporation pursuing growth in India, an Indian business expanding your presence overseas, or a financier assisting a customer with an investment into or out of India, we act as your trusted advisor, and help meet your commercial goals.

Our worldwide team is based in key locations for doing business in India, including Singapore, Hong Kong, Dubai, London, and Washington, D.C., and has close ties to India. We work successfully across borders to help clients develop infrastructure projects, seek investment opportunities, raise capital, restructure businesses, and resolve disputes and intellectual property issues in India. Our global reach enables us to see the big picture, while our tried-and-true partnerships with Indian lawyers enable us to understand and succeed at the local level. Our lawyers are fluent in Hindi and other Indian languages.

The drive we bring to serving our clients speaks for itself: The Legal 500 Asia Pacific has named us a "Leading Foreign Firm in India" for 2016, one of many awards our top team has won for its work in this bustling marketplace.

Contacts clés

Andy Ferris,
Singapore

Ajay Kuntamukkala,
Washington, D.C.

Pratiques concernées

Marchés de Capitaux

Contentieux

Fusions et Acquisitions

Private Equity

Industries connexes

Energie et Ressources Naturelles

Real Estate

Technologies, Médias et Télécommunications
